Activity 10. Unusual jobs!

Some people choose a regular job such as a secretary, but others feel that they require something different. You are going to read the interviews of five people talking about their unusual jobs, match the job title from the box below to the interview.

voice-over work, live mannequin, fragrance chemist, house sitter, colour expert

Andy

My daily work involves a lot of smelling and trying different scent combinations to create a good perfume.

Monica

In my work I have to think of people's psychology, fashion, and all the theory I learned in school. There's a lot behind choosing the best colours for a project.

Elizabeth

I was reluctant about this job in the beginning, but then I got evicted from my current flat and had nowhere else to go so I was more than happy to take care of things once the original occupants had left. I got to live for free in an awesome house and get paid for it.

Trinity

This isn't something you can do every day for eight hours a day. If I did it that long I might even get back pain. I was never into fashion, but then they offered me $50 an hour to just sit at the shop's window and occasionally walk around.

Jack

When I got the call for my first gig I was thrilled, I could finally do something I always wanted. I remember watching Dexter's Laboratory, Cow and Chicken or Pinky and the Brain as a child, and doing their voices. In time I got the chance to do just that professionally.

Activity 16. PERSONALITY TEST – ARE YOU AN INTROVERT OR AN EXTROVERT?

There are different kinds of people in the world: some are shy and reserved, others are outgoing and enjoy being in the middle of crowds. Psychologists call these two groups introverts and extroverts. If you are wondering whether it is better to be one or the other, the answer is no, as the world needs both kinds of people.

So which type are you? Read the pairs of sentences and choose the one that sounds more like you. Circle A or B.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. A. I get bored easily. | B. I always find something interesting to do. |
| 2. A. I am terrified of speaking in public. | B. I am excited whenever I speak in public. |
| 3. A. I avoid crowds. | B. I like crowds. |
| 4. A. Extreme sports are dangerous, I would never try them. | B. Extreme sports are great fun, I would love to try them. |
| 5. A. I enjoy spending time alone. | B. I hate to be alone. |
| 6. A. I only have a few close friends. | B. I have many casual friends. |
| The perfect holiday for me is: | |
| 7. A. a beach holiday. | B. an adventure holiday. |

WHAT ARE YOU LIKE?

- Meeting new people makes me feel:
8. A. curious and excited.
B. anxious and ill at ease
- My idea of a perfect evening is:
9. A. going to a party with my friends.
B. curling up in bed watching my favourite series.
- Whenever I have a problem I prefer to:
10. A. write about it in my diary.
B. talk to a friend about it.
- At a party you will find me:
11. A. sitting in a corner on my own.
B. mingling and talking to a lot of people.

Your score:

Mostly A's: You may be an introvert. You prefer to look at the world from the inside out. You enjoy spending time alone. You gain energy through inner reflection and solitude. You need alone time to recharge after a period of activity. You can get lost in thoughts easily and need time to process through most things. You express yourself well in writing.

Mostly B's: You may be an extrovert. You are mainly interested in the external life. You prefer spending time around other people and enjoy being the centre of attention. You are not comfortable on your own. You prefer talking rather than sitting alone and thinking. You express yourself well verbally.

So, whether you are an introvert, an extrovert, or somewhere in between, just remember that understanding how you and the people around you experience the world makes it easier to empathise, relate and communicate more effectively, thus improving your relationships.

 - C: talking to friends from other countries

4. If learning English could bring you a reward, what would you choose?
 - A: a diploma / a good grade
 - B: a ticket to a music concert or cinema
 - C: a trip to another country

5. If the English language were a painting, what would it be?
 - A: the rocky top of a mountain
 - B: a boat sailing on the calm sea, on a sunny day
 - C: the Statue of Liberty or Big Ben

WHAT ARE YOU LIKE?

Your score

Count the type of answers you chose (how many A, B or C).

Most answers A: to you, English is a subject that you consider part of the school schedule. You learn it because you want to have good grades and you want to progress. You could try to see it as a relaxing, fun activity, too: search the lyrics to the songs you like, find websites that have games in English or try watching movies without reading the translation. Make English a part of your free time, it shouldn't be just a school task.

Most answers B: to you, English is fun, relaxing, enjoyable and interesting. You learn it because it gives you happiness. It's a hobby to you, but it will also help you later in life. Make sure you check out some literature in English, to enrich your vocabulary and correct spelling. Keep enjoying it as you learn, you're doing fine so far. It would be good to pay more attention in class, too. Grammar may be boring, but it's necessary to know, so you can become as fluent and correct in English as your favourite actors.

Most answers C: to you, English is a means of communication. You see it as a necessary tool to make friends and learn about different countries. You can learn a lot by texting/ messaging on social media, but don't rely only on dialogues / conversation. You can try reading articles, magazines or books in English. Expand your vocabulary by reading books. Pay attention in the classroom, so you'll learn the correct way to express yourself. One day, you will travel to your dream destinations and you'll be glad you can communicate easily on any subject, in any situation.

THE WORLD AROUND US

Activity 19.

What a Wonderful World is a famous jazz song written by Bob Thiele and George David Weiss, first recorded by Louis Armstrong and released in 1967. As the title suggests, it presents the image of a wonderful world.

For a complete version of the lyrics, replace the pictures with the missing words.

I see of green, red too

I see them bloom for me and you

And I to myself what a wonderful world!

I see skies of blue and of white

The bright blessed day, the dark sacred

And I to myself what a wonderful world!

The colors of the , so pretty in the

Also on the faces of going by

I see friends shaking , saying how do you do

They're only saying I you!

I see babies -ing, I watch them grow

They'll learn so much more than I'll ever know

Then to myself what a wonderful world!

16. My parents were often angry with me because of that.
17. What I needed for a fabulous weekend was a tent, some comfortable shoes and my camera.
18. My parents used to spoil me - the most comfortable pram, the cutest toys, the most delicious baby food.

Using the sentences in 1.a. and 1.b., write a text with the title THE STORY OF MY LIFE.
Use some of the following expressions to order the events:

at the age of 9, back then, in 2013, in August 2015, when I turned 14, in my childhood, during my high school years, at school, after the age of 12, two years/seven months later, after that.

BOOKS AND EDUCATION

Activity 26. You are having a text conversation with your friend, Jake, who is looking for an exciting book to read. Give him a helping hand by completing the text conversation.

The screenshot shows a messaging interface with the following text exchange:

- User: Hi, (write your name)! I know you read interesting books. Could you please recommend one for me? (10:23)
- Jake Hills: Sure, Jake! (write book title) " " is one of my favourites! (10:26 ✓)
- User: What is it about? (10:28)
- Jake Hills: It's about
..... I'm sure you'll like it. (10:35 ✓)
- User: Sounds exciting! Thanks a lot! (10:37)

At the bottom, there is a message input field with a blue send button and a microphone icon.

Activity 27. Choose the right word, explaining why the other one is wrong:

1. You will have a test next time. Please, repeat/revise the last 2 chapters.
2. I am in the 7th grade. My favourite teacher/professor is the Biology one.
3. The school subjects/objects we study in the 7th grade are quite difficult.
4. During an exam, only paper and pens are allowed on desks/benches.

9. It is a classical/classic example of paradox.
10. He has remarkable capability/ability as a teacher.

BOOKS AND EDUCATION

Activity 28. Tell the story!

Cut up the pictures and reorder the story. Another option is to number the frames to tell the story correctly. Think of an ending and write it. If you like to draw then you can draw one last frame to give the story an end. If not, just write your own 2-3 sentences.

BOOKS AND EDUCATION

Activity 29. Read the following text:

PRINTING THE LEGEND

How pirates slipped into popular legend is easy to trace. Just as the Golden Age was coming to an end, a certain Captain Charles Johnson (a pseudonym that no one has cracked) published a famous compendium of the biographies of these desperados [...]. It was full of bloodthirsty detail, breathlessly narrated, and secured the legends of Blackbeard, Black Bart and a host of others. [...]

Johnson's book has been the source of nearly every cultural representation of the pirate ever since. It is easy to see why, from passages like this: "He assumed the cognomen of Blackbeard from that large quantity of hair which, like a frightful meteor, covered his whole face and frightened America more than any comet that has appeared there a long time. The beard was black, which he had suffered to grow of an extravagant length; as to breadth it came up to his eyes. He was accustomed to twist it with ribbons, in small tails."

Going into battle, Johnson says, Blackbeard adorned his beard with lit matches to make himself appear "like a fury, from hell." Brutal punishment and death is of course the outcome of his rogue adventures, but even Johnson ambiguously declares the murderous Blackbeard a "courageous Brute".

www.bbc.com, June 21, 2017

cognomen = nickname

rogue = criminal

BOOKS AND EDUCATION

Follow-up:

1. Read the first paragraph and find information about the book mentioned: author, genre of stories, impact on pirate fiction.
2. Read the second paragraph. Write the adjectives describing Blackbeard and mention why the pirate inspired fear.
3. Write a paragraph about what aspects contributed to establishing his legend.

Match the numbers to the letters:

- | | |
|--------------|---------------|
| 1. adorn | a. arrived in |
| 2. assume | b. a lot of |
| 3. trace | c. scare |
| 4. a host of | d. accept |
| 5. frighten | e. discover |
| 6. slip into | f. decorate |

Fill in the correct prepositions, then choose any three and make sentences.

1. to come....an end
2. full....details
3. to grow.....an extravagant length
4. to be accustomed....something
5. to slip.....
6. to twist it.....ribbons

BOOKS AND EDUCATION

Underline the correct item:

1. The famous/ notorious criminal escaped from prison.
2. The country is famous/ notorious for its natural beauty.
3. Her death has left a whole/ hole in all our lives.
4. Some animals usually swallow their prey whole/ hole.
5. They can do as/ like they wish.
6. He used to have a bike as/ like mine.

Rewrite the following sentences using compound adjectives as in the example.

E.g. The pirate has got a black beard. The pirate is black-bearded.

1. Blackbeard had wild eyes. He
2. Henry Morgan had long hair. He
3. Do you know a pirate who had one hand? Do you know a pirate?
4. Long John Silver had only one leg. He
5. I have seen the picture of a pirate who had one eye! I have seen the picture of apirate!

Fill in the gaps with words derived from the words in brackets.

1. That king was a brutal and(murder) despot.
2. They tried to help the man escape (punish) for the crime.
3. This story ends..... (ambiguous) and I cannot really tell you what happened to the main character.
4. The statue in the main square is a (represent) of the pirate.
5. The pirates' ship measured 30 feet in (broad).

«Entre les murs» est un long métrage français sorti en 2008 et réalisé par Laurent Cantet. Ce drame est une adaptation du roman du même nom de François Bégaudeau, qui a joué le rôle principal du film et cosigné l'adaptation avec Laurent Cantet. François Bégaudeau est professeur de français, écrivain et, avec ce film, scénariste et acteur. Sans aucune musique, effet spécial ou mise en scène particulière, Laurent Cantet parvient à nous captiver pendant 2h 08. Brillamment reçu par la presse française et par la critique étrangère, le film a remporté 6 prix dans les festivals (dont les plus importants sont la Palme d'or au Festival de Cannes 2008 et le César de la meilleure adaptation 2009) et a été nominé 20 fois.

JEUX AVEC LES MOTS

Comme son titre l'indique, "Entre les murs" ne sort jamais de l'enceinte d'un lycée du 20e arrondissement de Paris. Le sujet du film : une année de la vie d'une classe de 4e, vue à travers les yeux d'un jeune professeur. Une réalité dans laquelle les élèves s'avèrent indisciplinés, grossiers, toujours sur la défensive et présentant de grandes lacunes scolaires.

Face à eux, François Marin (interprété par François Bégaudeau) incarne le prof qui enseigne avec passion et enthousiasme. S'il s'agit assurément d'une fiction, l'œuvre a des allures de documentaire. Les acteurs sont tous des amateurs. Les élèves ont été préparés au tournage du film lors d'ateliers. Les professeurs, le personnel du lycée et les parents incarnent leurs rôles de la vie quotidienne. Et cela entretient constamment cette confusion des genres, comme pour donner une valeur de vérité universelle à une situation propre à une classe. »

Activity 19. THE WORLD AROUND US

What a Wonderful World

I see trees of green, red roses too
 I see them bloom for me and you
 And I think to myself what a wonderful world
 I see skies of blue and clouds of white
 The bright blessed day, the dark sacred night
 And I think to myself what a wonderful world
 The colors of the rainbow, so pretty in the sky
 Also on the faces of people going by
 I see friends shaking hands, saying how do you do
 They're only saying I love you
 I see babies crying, I watch them grow
 They'll learn so much more than I'll ever know
 Then I think to myself what a wonderful world!

Activity 27. BOOKS AND EDUCATION

1. Revise is correct, because it means to prepare for a test/exam. To repeat means to do again.
2. Teacher is correct, because they teach in secondary schools. Professors teach in universities.

ANSWERS (RĂSPUNSURI)

3. Subject is correct, because it is about an area of knowledge studied in a school. Object is a false friend. It means a thing that can be seen/touched.
4. Desks is correct, because it describes a table that you sit at school. Bench is not the right choice because it means a long seat for more people, usually met in a park.
5. Take is correct, because it means to be present, to attend. To pass means to achieve the required standard in the exam.
6. Taught is the correct word, because it means to give lessons to students. To learn means to study on your own.
7. Did is correct. The collocation is to DO homework, NOT to make homework.
8. Complimented is the right word, because it means that the teacher praised the student. To complement means to add so that something should be complete, good or effective.
9. Classic is the right word, as it means typical. Classical means traditional, often contrasting with modern things.
10. Ability is the right word, as it means having the needed skill/ knowledge. Capability refers to the amount of work one can do and how well they can do it.

1. Author: Captain Charles Johnson

Genre of stories: biography

Impact on pirate fiction: it has inspired the cultural representation of the pirate

Suggested answers

2. Blackbeard is described as having a "large quantity of hair", a beard of an "extravagant length" that was "twisted with ribbons, in small tails".

3. Several aspects contributed to the establishment of Blackbeard's legend. Many of them are linked to the fearsome image he inspired, with the amount of long dark hair that covered his face and that he decorated with lit matches before going into battle. However, not only his appearance, but also the notoriety of his adventures inspired his slipping into legend. Blackbeard's punishment was brutal, sometimes ending in death, but according to Johnson himself, he was also courageous.
